I, Captain B.M. DOWSING RAN, Commanding Officer HMAS STIRLING, Superintendent of Naval waters at Garden Island declared on 14 December 2009, hereby make the following notice under Regulation 4 of the Control of Naval Waters Regulations.

In the interest of public safety and safety of property, Restricted Naval Waters exist on Garden Island in the vicinity of the Armament Jetty and Colpoys Pt as defined below. Access to these areas is prohibited to all vessels and persons (except Australian Defence Force, police and other authorised vessels and personnel) at all times.

The limits of the Restricted Waters are defined as follows:

RESTRICTED ACCESS AREA 1: Careening Bay and Fleet Base West.
Restricted Naval Waters are marked by the Southern 2 beacons on Garden Island that mark the southern end of the measured distance and extends East on a bearing of 080 for 1.38km to the Naval waters limits. It then runs in a southerly direction on a bearing of 159 for 2.59km, following the Naval Waters boundary and continues South West on a bearing 211 for 1.55km before running on a bearing of 274 for 0.23km where it joins the northern end of the causeway. The GPS coordinates for this area are listed below.

RESTRICTED ACCESS AREA 2: Armament Jetty.
Restricted Naval Waters commence at southern edge of Second Head extending East on a bearing of 092 for 0.58km, then South East on a bearing of 158 for 2.2km. It then extends South West on a bearing of 248 for 1.24km where it ends at Cliff Point. The GPS coordinates for this area are listed below.

Note: This Restricted access area applies when there are no vessels at the armament jetty. When the Jetty is in use, an exclusion zone also exists defined as a circle of radius 1300 metres centred on position 32° 10’33.60”S, 115° 40’50.40”E as documented in the Control of Naval Waters Act 1918 Proclamation (14/12/2009).
