contact Nearer to Nature on (08) 9725 4300. be contacted on (08) 9728 3043 or for education enquiries, for those wanting to stay a little longer. The cottages can accommodation is available at the Wellington Forest Cottages education activities are offered to school groups and and past management of the jarrah forest. Environmental walk trails through the forest give an insight into the ecology an educational experience for young and old. Self-guided Situated among magnificent jarrah forest this centre offers

Wellington Discovery Forest

ÀÅÅ and nearby the café serves light refreshments. about the dam's construction and history of the area abseiling site. The Quarry offers sightseeing and information spectacular backdrop to a popular picnic, rock climbing and of the Wellington Dam early last century, now serves as a The Quarry, a centre of industrial activity during construction

The Quarry/Kiosk

The site is suitable for caravans. tables, and toilets with universal access.

canoeing, boating and bushwalking. There are barbecues, picnic popular camping and picnic area where visitors enjoy fishing, Located on the shores of Wellington Dam, Potters Gorge is a

* × ×

Lennard Drive

Big Rock, Little Rock and Long Pool. rafting, bushwalking and picnicking at the Rapids, number of sites suitable for swimming, canoeing, white-water this scenic drive along the valley offers picturesque views and a Located along the Collie River downstream of Wellington Dam, sites are also at Stones Brook and Gel Coat. Caravans are not tables, universal access toilets and a viewing platform. Camping and camping. Facilities include wood and gas barbecues, picnic include swimming, bushwalking, picnicking, canoeing, fishing picnic area is ideal for a relaxing weekend outing. Activities Situated on the lower Collie River, this popular camping and access trail. Mosquito repellent is a must when visiting the Memorial offers information, shelters, toilets and a universal at nearby Belvidere camping area. The John Boyle O'Reilly of the area. Visitors may bring their caravan or pitch a tent tables, toilets and an interpretive trail explaining the history fishing. Belvidere picnic site offers gas barbecues, picnic Belvidere beaches are easily accessible and are popular for offers a relaxing getaway near the beach. Buffalo and Located 20km north of Bunbury, Leschenault Peninsula

Honeymoon Pool

Conservation Park Leschenault Peninsula

Dam or the Harvey River to the north. Dogs are not permitted. quality, water based-activities are not permitted at Stirling universal access and a lookout. In order to safeguard water offering sheltered gas barbecues, tables and toilets with Located 17km east of Harvey, the dam has a picnic area surrounding forest, barbecues and tables. and offers a relaxing getaway with a walk trail through the coastal plain. It is renowned for its beautiful wildflowers provides views of the Harvey Dam, surrounding valley and This secluded picnic area located on a granite outcrop

Still Still And Still S

.lliM nsmffoH

between 1 November and Easter. Dogs are not permitted at drinking water catchment and is only open for camping toilets and barbecues. The area is situated in the Stirling This old mill town offers picnicking, camping, walk trails,

lliM nsmffoH

King Jarrah

This majestic jarrah tree can be found along King Tree Road in Ferguson Valley. The site offers a chance to safely view one of the larger jarrah trees from a boardwalk lookout. For your safety and to protect the old tree's sensitive roots, please stay on the boardwalk at all times.

Mount Lennard mountain bike trails

Mount Lennard contains 40km of mountain bike trails of varying grades for riders of all levels. The trails weave through mature jarrah forest and provide spectacular views of the lower Collie River valley. A trailhead off Pile Road offers car parking and information.

Crooked Brook

Situated approximately 17km south east of Bunbury, this community-managed site offers a relaxing day-use area. When visiting, you will find a selection of walk trails including a universal access trail, car park, toilets, information shelters and gas barbecues.

Harris Dam

Harris Dam, situated 15km north of Collie, was built on the Harris River in 1990 to provide drinking water to the Great Southern. Although water based-activities are not allowed, there is a grassed picnic area with tables, toilets, gas barbecues and a lookout. This site is managed by the Water Corporation.

Stockton Lake

This former open-cut mine has been rehabilitated as a small lake with bush camping areas and toilets. It provides a popular setting for waterskiing. Due to past mining activities the water is very deep, very cold and mildly acidic which may irritate swimmers' eyes or sensitive skin.

Glen Mervyn Dam 👬 🛴 🖈 🔭 💸

Located 20km south of Collie, the Glen Mervyn Dam is primarily used for waterskiing. Other activities include swimming, fishing and picnicking. Facilities include wood barbecues, picnic tables and toilets.

Dogs and poison baits

The forest is baited with poison baits for the protection of native animals. Please refer to dpaw.wa.gov.au/westernshield for more information.

Domestic pets are not permitted in Wellington National Park, Hoffman Mill or Leschenault Peninsula Conservation Park, with the exception of Buffalo Beach where they must be on a leash.

Vehicles

Unlicensed motorbikes, quad bikes and off-road vehicles are strictly prohibited in all recreation sites in the Wellington District. Penalties apply and are enforced.

Camping fees

Camping fees apply for park visitors for the use of campground facilities. Fees are collected by the ranger with limited concessions applicable. Check the ParkStay website for current details: parkstay.dpaw.wa.gov.au/about-camping/fees.

Campfires

The lighting of campfires in other than designated fire places is prohibited. Wood barbecues are provided at most sites. Visitors are reminded that during the summer months there is a total fire ban in place in all locations. Please check conditions daily on signage situated in the recreation site. For your convenience it is a good idea to bring your own portable gas stove or barbecue. Visitors need to be aware that on days of Very High to Catastrophic fire danger, some or all sites may be closed.

Park closures are available at parks.dpaw.wa.gov.au/alerts.

Be clean Put your litter in bins where provided or, better still, take it home with you when you leave.

More information

Department of Parks and Wildlife Wellington District 147 Wittenoom Street COLLIE, PO Box 809 COLLIE 6225

Phone (08) 9735 1988 Fax (08) 9734 4539 Web: dpaw.wa.gov.au

Parks and Wildlife

Department of Information current at January 2015.

perfect day trip for the whole family. Dam is less than two hours drive south of Perth, making it a offers caravan and cabin-style accommodation. Logue Brook new campground or the Lake Brockman Tourist Park, which also a licence and season applies. Camping is only permitted in the if you have any luck, the marron will not disappoint. However, environment. For the keen fisherman, the trout are plentiful and waterskiing or canoeing, while enjoying the beautiful perfect location for a range of activities such as swimming, jarrah forest. The clear calm waters of the lake provide the Logue Brook Dam is a stunning water haven surrounded by

(гэке вкоскшэи) Logue Brook Dam

The site has picnic tables, barbecues and a toilet. offers a relaxing atmosphere set within a beautiful arboretum. Located in the forest 15km east of Yarloop, this picnic site and a parking area.

A THE STATE OF STATE

Millowdale

is an ideal 'driver reviver' stop. The site offers barbecues, tables rest. The site is less than 100m from the Forrest Highway and Whittakers Mill offers a relaxing atmosphere for a picnic or swimming, rafting, canoeing, bushwalking and cycling. of recreational pursuits including camping, fishing, Donnybrook, Darkan and Waroona) offers an array The Wellington District (situated between Bunbury,

Whittakers Mill

Wellington District recreation sites

Visitor guide

RECYCLE Please return unwanted brochures to distribution points

