Whistlepipe Gully Walk Trail

Walk Trail Information

Distance: 3 ½ kms return

Time: 1 – 1½ hour

Grade: 3

Location: The northern end of Lewis Road, Forrestfield. An alternative start point is the western end of Orange Valley Road, Kalamunda.

Description: This is a reasonably easy walk in the Mundy Regional Park, although there are a few rocky descents. Beautiful wildflowers in spring.

The trail markers are Shire of Kalamunda markers with a pink corner.

Trail Notes

Start point: The northern end of Lewis Road, Forrestfield.

1. Commence walk down the right hand side of the creek.
2. Cross the creek and continue down the left hand side of the creek. The site of a house that spanned the creek in the 1960s is just upstream from here.
3. Continue along left hand side of the creek.
4. Turn right at the end of Orange Valley Road.
5. Continue up the hill along the path, keeping the creek on your right.
6. Do not cross the bridge, continue downstream.
7. Return to the car park.
