

EAT PICK GROW TRAIL

Wanneroo to Chittering

Welcome to Wanneroo & Chittering

Perth's northern hinterlands

You could be forgiven for not realising that just beyond the estates of the urban fringe lies a world with a completely different pace of life. Industrious farmers and innovators work hard every day to make and grow produce for you to taste and enjoy. Whether it's great tasting produce, specialist advice or a unique experience there's a lot to taste and discover in this underexplored part of the world that's so close to home.

On this trail you will:

Eat. Taste and take home locally grown food from fruit, veg and confectionary producers, featuring; strawberry, olive, citrus, mango and even a boutique chocolate tearooms. Cut out the middleman and buy fresh while reducing your food kilometres.

Pick. Unique fruit picking experiences are just a short car trip away. Pick mangos, olives and citrus straight from the tree. Hot tip: Give the farms a call before you head there, to book ahead or check that their produce is in season.

Grow. You can grow your own with fruit, veg and succulent plants from specialist outlets. Ask these experts all the questions to help you turn your thumbs green or see how the experts grow lavender and turn this into a range of natural healthy products on site.

4. PERTH MANGO FARM

Local Pick Your Own Mangoes

It is no secret that fruit grown in a more temperate environment has a superior flavour and higher sugar content. Perth's cold winter has proven to be advantageous in giving our fruit the edge when it comes to flavour and sweetness. Our trees have been propagated from seed sourced from the Bowen region of Queensland.
