

Welcome to the Perth Hills – the home of the heritage pub

Here in the Perth Hills, we love a heritage pub. Old floorboards and a ghost story or two only makes the beer taste better. From Serpentine in the south to Gidgegannup in the north, you won't have any trouble finding an historic pub, tavern, or hotel, each with a unique history and an inviting atmosphere.

I. NOBLE FALLS TAVERN

While you're there, have a look at the venues' food and entertainment offerings. Many of our heritage pubs are renowned for their restaurants – it's more than just a chicken parmi up in the Hills! And you'll often find great music acts up here too. From David Helfgott to Dave Hole, there's something to suit everyone's musical taste.

Head to the web or on to social media for information

About the Perth Hills

How long has it been since you headed to the Hills and discovered your doorstep? The Darling Range is Perth's great unexplored playground. Hiking and walking, cycling, wildflowers, markets, history, wineries, cideries, breweries, distilleries, native animals and birds, views, waterfalls, creeks, boutique accommodation, luxury spas, galleries and artists' studios, cafes, restaurants, pubs, taverns, scenic drives, fruit picking and much, much more. You can even take a camel ride through the forest! And at only 30 minutes from the CBD, it's the day trip or weekend staycation that has plenty to offer.
