

SOUTH SHORE

South Shore - is a freeride trail that contains three main areas:
 The Log Park is a skills warm up area consisting of various log rides and platforms.
 The Western End consists of two lines, Triple Treat very difficult and the Saw Pit extremely difficult that both contain gap jumps.
Snakes and Ladders is an extremely difficult descent with berms, see saws, gap jumps and log rides. This section should be walked first.

 This trail is for very experienced riders only. Technical features have no bypass options. Be aware of your skill levels. If you are unsure of your ability, walk the trail first and ride at a safe speed.

Munda Biddi Trail - From the end of Snakes and Ladders, ride along the Munda Biddi Trail to return to the carpark.
